I will always remember "Mr. Kowalchuk" with fondness for his no-nonsense teaching as he tried to convey his wealth of knowledge in high school. In later years, my husband and I treasured conversations on faith issues with Deacon Morris. Memory Eternal!

Deacon Morris was a very good friend to me while I was pastor at St. Michael's, Cooks Creek. He had the great patience teaching me Ukrainian. I always enjoyed his friendly visits. May Deacon Morris rest in Peace and be rewarded for his many great works. To his family my prayers are with you. I will say a mass for the repose of his soul.
