I was shocked to hear of Peter's passing. He had grown into a close friend and was my wine maker extraordinaire. He was the go to person in everything. If you couldn't find the problem phone Peter. He will be missed for all his talents and for his wonderful laugh, the party didn't start till Peter and Connie were there.

The news of Uncle Peter's most untimely passing is truly sad and a shock....I still can't believe it! I have many fond memories visiting Uncle Peter and Auntie Connie and my cousins Peter (Jr) and Lisa over the years-they always made everyone feel welcome in their home-so many happy memories too numerous to mention. Uncle Peter loved a good joke, loved to laugh and loved good music. A warm kind soul taken far too soon.
