He served in the Second World War and shortly after started working for the CN Railway where he retired after 33 years. After Mom passed away, Dad took on the role as Dad and Mr. Mom. Doing the household chores and learning to cook great meals, which we all admired him for. As time went on we learned his trade secrets for cooking which he enjoyed sharing. As he grew older we let him sit back while we took care of him. He loved being with people and everyone loved him. Dad enjoyed many outings to the Dauphin Ukrainian Festival, Folklorama, and mushroom and berry picking. He loved the outdoors. Dad had great respect for his children and grandchildren, he was a great leader in our lives. A big thank you to a special doctor and friend, Dr. Mehta, the wonderful home care staff, Greg, Wayne, Maurice and Mauriceo and special nurse Glenda.
